Sub: Grant of privilege passes to "Trainee".

One of the Federations have brought out that railway employees appointed as "Trainee" are not being extended the facilities of privilege pass.

The matter has been examined in consultation with the Finance Directorate. It has been observed that in terms of extant instruction contained in item (10) of schedule-VII (Special Pass) of Railway Servants (Pass) Rules, 1986 (revised edition-1993) Apprentices and Trainees against Group C except the Apprentices Act posts may be given the class of pass [and PTOs] (for self only) on the basis of minimum of pay of the post or grade to which they are to be appointed on completion of their apprenticeship, in accordance with the pay limits prescribed from time to time.

Necessary action may be taken accordingly.
