No. E(O)-I/2019/Policy/03

New Delhi, dated 10.04.2019.

The General Managers,
All Indian Railways including CORE, Metro Railway, and Production Units.

The Director General,

The Directors,

Sub: Delay in finalisation of D&AR cases.

Board vide their letter of even number dated 13.02.2019, had brought to the notice of the Railways that Hon'ble MR has taken a serious view in regard to the delay in finalisation of D&AR cases and had desired that these cases should be brought to a logical conclusion in a time bound manner. Several instances and cases have come to the notice of Board, wherein, even minor penalty proceedings are unduly delayed. There are no justifiable reasons for delay in disposing of Minor Penalty proceedings, especially after the defence of the Charged Officer/employee is submitted.

All Zonal Railways are requested to immediately review the pending Minor Penalty proceedings and expedite the disposal of cases. All such cases ought to be brought to a logical conclusion within a reasonable period say 50-60 days as advised vide Board letter No. E(D&A)2008RG6-29 dated 23.09.2008 (copy enclosed).

Action taken in this regard may be appraised to Board.
